

Tortoise Champions

Ten fun ways to raise £30 to buy a Tortoise Champions pack for your class.

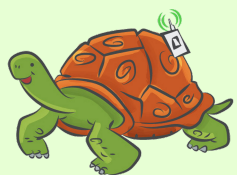

Tortoise-themed Fun Run

Why not get your class to dress up as a tortoise or their favorite animal for a sponsored run around the playground or local park?

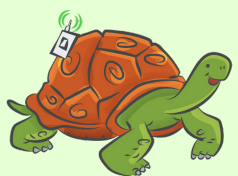

No Uniform Day

No uniform days are a really easy way to fundraise for Tortoise Champions. If you have 30 students in your class, they only need to bring in £1 each!

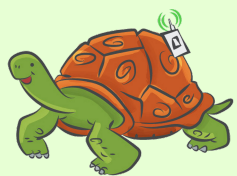

Silly Sock Day

Get your class to wear their craziest pair of socks - or even odd socks for a simple easy fundraiser! Or make it a little more creative and make sock puppets of their favourite animals?

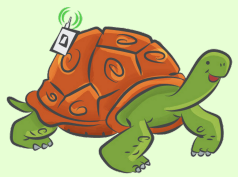

Cake Sale

Make green tortoise-themed cupcakes or chocolate cornflake tortoise nests and sell them around the school!

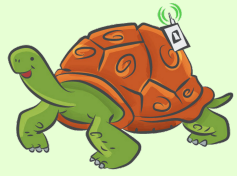

Tortoise Egg Hunt

Like an easter egg hunt with a turtley awesome twist! £1 to join the hunt!

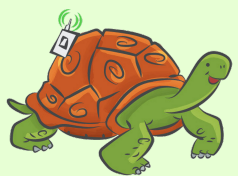

Helpful Hatchlings

Ask your students to be super helpful around the house for some small donations - doing the washing up, making the bed or putting away clothes is a great way to raise money!

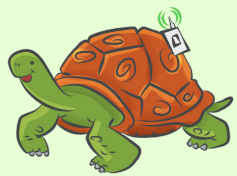

Sponsored Litter Pick

Raise money and clean up the school or local park!

Let's Get Quizzical

A tortoise quiz is a fun way for all the class to get involved! £1.50 entry and the winner can receive a small prize with the leftover money!

Name That Tortoise

This is one the whole school could get involved with! Buy a cuddly tortoise toy and ask the students to guess it's name. The winner gets to take the toy home!

Colouring-in Day

Email info@gct.org and we can send you a cool tortoise colouring in sheet for your class!
